

Alive

Lyrics by Ann Kathrin Lüthi

Covered with a veil of fog
Unhappy with a little love
Do you believe in anything? Do you believe?

In any way I am defeated
I've lost something I really needed
No hidden sign

*Since I'm alive I've applied the things I've learned
Since I am alive I have let the fire burn
I will leave no stone unturned
Since I am alive since I'm alive*

Cover me with your salvation and
Bring to me a true sensation
A feather on my face

In case the choice is mine
I'll chose the lonely truth and find the one and only way out
The other way out

*Since I am alive I've applied the things I've learned
Since I'm alive Since I'm alive
I have let the fire burn I will leave no stone unturned
Since I'm alive Since I'm alive*

There you go and hide away
A thousand times a dept to pay
A circle so vicious that you can't pull me in

You can't pull me in can't wear me out
I know what life is all about
My big mystery, sweet history

*Since I'm alive I've applied the things I've learned
Since I am alive I have let the fire burn
I will leave no stone unturned
Since I am alive since I'm alive*

*Since I'm alive I've applied the things I've learned
Since I am alive I have let the fire burn
I will leave no stone unturned
Since I am alive since I'm alive*
