

I Feel for you

Lyrics by ann kathrin lüthi

I am going home I am leaving
I feel the same like you
We are outnumbered by them
And now we are cornered by them

I feel for you
I'm not an invader and I am no traitor

We strangle every feeling
We count the days till then
We are craving for a healing
Close your eyes and count to ten

I have no name for this
I can't go and give it a name
I want to stay near you I want to feel you near
I want the world to disappear

Are we counterparts? Are we kindred souls?
We poke our hearts we miss our goals
Scared of not getting there we are not getting anywhere
The pearls remain trapped all the pearls remain trapped but

I feel for you
