

Line of Fire

Lyrics by Ann Kathrin Lüthi

You cannot miss
What's never been there
You're looking for a myth
Everywhere

Die for a thrill
Your boredom unwanted
Amazing that it's real
And granted

Come pull me out of the line of fire
Come pull me out

Don't dare to blink
Your hair moved by the cold
You've got no time to think
No thing to hold

Drifting away
Try looking through everything
Big reason to stay
Sweet healing

Come pull me out of the line of fire
Come pull me out

I'll run away
I'll rob the pain
Safe from nothing

Come pull me out of the line of fire
Come pull me out

Don't dare to blink
Your hair moved by the cold
