

Return to Me

By ann kathrin lüthi

This is my part
It is privately mine
Yes thank you I'm fine
For the sake of your heart
Don't sleep when you dream
There's no in between
The day and the night

You are here without being seen
There will always be light
When you smile at me
Contagiously

This is my part
Inside of your heart
Till the end of time

As the cold in the morning
Drowns the memories of the night
And the river of tomorrow
Will swallow you inside
And take your face away from me
But I feel warm
Return to me
Return to me

Again you light the fire
Would you buy me free
And silence past desire
Eternally

Don't you see what you mean to me
There will always be light
When you smile at me
Contagiously

Where is my part
Inside of your heart
You're losing me
