

Something of the Night

By Annakin

You know the thoughts that are on your mind
They aren't really yours

You're a thorn in my side
You are something of the night
You are torn in my side
You are something of the night

Cradle your lies in your arm
You'll miss the bull's eye

Evil flows down the river
Drowns with the sinking sun
Wake me wake me
Oh what have we done
Wake me wake me
Oh what have we done

This is it press exit and enter
I have you by the horns

You're a thorn in my side
You are something of the night
You are torn in my side
You are something of the night

Evil flows down the river
Drowns with the sinking sun
Wake me wake me
Oh what have we done
Wake me wake me
Oh what have we done

You're a thorn in my side
You are something of the night
You are torn in my side
You are something of the night
