

Breathe

Lyrics by ann kathrin lüthi

When the night comes slowly in to fall
And you and me can hardly see
You start to realize that you just gave you gave it all
To a thief like me

When there's no world outside so that the space between us falls
You're breathing in through me
You're breathing in through me
When our time stands still we break down all the walls
And we're crashing heavenly
Heavenly

Say have you ever lost control
Have you ever fought in vain
Will you let me touch your soul
Will you help me breathe again

Stay

I breathe I'm breathing in
I breathe I'm breathing out
I leave I'm leaving them
Leave them

I breathe I'm breathing in
I breathe I'm breathing out
I live I live again
Breathe in
