

Malfunction

Lyrics by Ann Kathrin Lüthi

No ABC no 123
This is you this is me
There is no wrong no right
Feel the darkness gleaming bright
For you tonight for you tonight

No ratio at all no virtue to control no deathblow no NO
No letter of complaint you were my patron saint
Neither blueprint nor blackmail I've got the proof that black is white
No hidden trap no vicious game a setting up? No way
No weakness no grief no solitude either
No burglar no thief no intruder no liar
We're incredibly unarmed non-toxic and unharmed
And unguarded of the inescapable

We used to rise up to the sky
I can feel the war that you are still fighting
Things don't change out of the sky
I can feel the war that you are still fighting
We used to rise up to the sky
I can feel the war that you are still fighting
Things don't change out of the sky
I can feel the war that you are still fighting

Malfunction: send me your letter of complaint
To no more bonding in denial
