

Restored

By ann kathrin lüthi

Take it back
Forget something
Unpack your bag
And start again
Step out of line
And miss the train
Change your mind
And place the blame

Don't want to hear the massive things
They will make me cold
Don't want them near to where they cling

Make one step back
Forgive a thing
No loss no lack
A joy to bring
You should turn back
You've lost something
Eternal lack
Glass splattering

Beware of tricks
But let me in
No teaser no test
An awakening
Make an effect
And suck it in
The ice is cracked
Hearts are breaking

Don't want to hear the massive things
They will make me cold
Don't want them near to where they cling

The light's on red
You're bound to stay
I'm unprepared
Don't go away

Take it back
Forget something
Unpack your bag
And start again
Make one step back
Forgive one thing
No loss no lack
An awakening
