

Taken Apart

On the wrong side of the morning
We lay bare our fate
The rain is the surrogate
For the tears we confiscate

Did you get your fingers burnt
For something left unspoken
Tell me what doesn't hurt
When it gets broken

Oh you've taken me apart

I hear a sound of a different sort
You play me so well
You save me when I'm lost in thought
On a thousand decibel

You hide a secret weapon
You're like a Trojan Horse
Did I make you forget your Primary source

Oh you've taken me apart
You
Me
Apart
