

Mars

You burn through my darkness
You burn through my hidden secrets
With your shield and with your spear

I missed my fiery neighbor
I missed your furrowed face
Is your today my tomorrow

How deep do your still waters run
My mission has just begun
How deep lies your soul
How deep

You observe my every movement
I observe with Curiosity
Who is marching in on you

Tell me are you like Minotaur
A horned a horned god
Or a deity of war
