

Hard to beat

Where's the protection for me and a million others
The protection for me and other lovers
I will hand over my secrets

The connection between you and me is nowhere
My connection to you is simply not there
I will hand over my secrets

You are hard to beat

There is no one but you who would treat me like that Mock me provoke me and you will fall flat
I will hand over my secrets

Caressed are the words that you did not get
Blessed is the best of the both of us
Yet I will hand over my secrets

The trust I gave to you was in vain to you it's all the same
