

Here is to you

Can anybody tell me
What this mess is all about
And why are you silent
When it makes me wanna shout

You have lost your paradise
And you haven't realized it yet
So why are you calm now
When it makes me upset

We're gonna have to fight this out
Side by side
Here is to you
We have nothing left that we could lose

Everybody follows you
Without the slightest hint of a doubt
It hurts not to be part of you
But your way is not the way out

I am not your saviour
I am not the voice for everyone
Could you please help me out here
Before all resistance has gone
