

On Fire

Mountains they are just waves that last
The rain is but the sea's outcast
Tonight i will set on hold the system of mine
To win a bit of time

Inside i'm on fire
The night sky's full of sapphires

The sun is our brightest outpost
I feel alive when it hurts the most

Nothing is ever as it seems

The present has no horses to hold
A green light means that everything goes