

Lullaby

I watch you curled up in your sleep
And to know that your heart beats for me
Makes me proud beyond words
I will always try to find something
That is thicker than blood
To hold our tie

And you will always try to make me laugh
By pulling a trick out of your bag
When in fact you're too tired to even stand
But you you do it anyway
For the smile you get from me
For the smile you get in return

I am good at roaming my mind
For something i'll never find
Like an animal that is shuffling the garbage at night
And we both remain hungry
And we both keep searching
For the one thing that stills our insides

Take me aside
Into the light
Before love disappears

Now let me return to the part with the heart
Because that is what really weighs
And i just wanted to say
That i am so so lucky
To have you beside me
To have you beside me
