

Marian
by Annakin

100 bpm

Oh Marian I have built a barricade
And i will let no one no one in
I will hide here until my sweet Marian
I can be sure that two times two is four again

All my sandbags are filled and piled up
They will get soaked by the water that rises
Aren't we all hoping for little surprises
Until two times two is four again

And I will let no one no one in
This will be long and long lasting

Oh Marian you really hammer it in
You tell me you love me in a million of ways
Mindful nights and sleepy sleepy days
Until two times two makes four again

Do you really wanna chance it
Do you really wanna fight it
Do you really wanna change it
Do you really wanna go for it
