

Want you

66 bpm

by Annakin

Here it comes again
This feeling from the bottom of my heart
That i don't fit in fit in
And i can't hide it

It will rise to my face
A place where i give myself away
So i am smiling just in case

You want me to stay
It's all I want you to say
That you want me to stay
Is all I want you to say

I am feeling like an insect
That got trapped in the light
When in fact the exit
Is right where I once came in

But I can't find it anymore
Due to complications on the floor
So I am smiling just in case

You will always be the one I want

I love my addiction
My passion I've come to like my fate
Here is to the bruises the abusers
Who never show themselves
So i am smiling just in case
